

Job Title

Video Editor (Ad Hoc)

About the Role

We're always seeking skilled freelance Video Editors who can jump into projects as needed and bring stories to life through clean, compelling edits. You'll collaborate with our creative team to shape narrative, refine visuals, and deliver work that meets our brand standards. Editors must be confident working in DaVinci Resolve & bonus if you can travel to our Woking office.

What You'll Do

- Reporting to the Creative Director, you'll help deliver client commercial & narrative multimedia campaigns.
- Video editing in both assistant & whole-project capacities.

What We're Looking For (Required)

- Proficient editor in DaVinci Resolve.
- Proactive & growth-minded individual who is eager to upskill in a small business environment.

Bonus Points (Preferred)

- Graphic design and/or 3D modelling knowledge.

Who We Are

Lamplight Media is an award-winning full-service media production company based by Tannery Film Studios in Woking, Surrey. We specialise in story-led films and social media content that connects, captivates, and delivers real impact. Founded in 2022 by Tim Marsh from his university bedroom, we've grown to work with clients such as Surrey County Council, Ann Summers, & Kew Gardens.

Location & Other Details

- Based in Woking with the option to work remotely.
- Ad Hoc days when projects require. Often Feb-April & September-November.
- Salary £12.71- £20.00 p/h (experience depending) + expenses.

How to Apply

Please submit a CV and portfolio of relevant work with your application to careers@lamplightmedia.uk. Title your application with 'Video Editor (Ad Hoc)'. Include a link to your social media content / commercial video portfolio. Successful applicants will be contacted by the team for a remote interview. Please only apply if you are proficient in DaVinci Resolve.
